

John McMullin, HC, CHt and Leigh Randolph, MS, DDS, HC

The Holistic Coaching Intensive

Thursday – Sunday

May 16 – 19, 2019

Cloverleaf Suites, Dublin Ohio 43017

John and Leigh, of Cape Coral, Florida, bring their unique and powerful gifts to this opportunity of self-growth, holistic coaching, metaphysical healing, and special teachings. Topics:

Embracing Respect of the Mind and Reverence of the Heart

If the ego is attached to the illusion of separation then how do we connect to heart consciousness? We often believe we matter by making others responsible for our joy and then blame them for the shame and fear of not belonging. Participants will learn how to make belonging an inside perception.

Deeper Aspects of Masculine and Feminine Energy

Since every mortal agreed to the paradox of the literal realm, we participate in the masculine energy of doing and the feminine energy of being. Participants will learn the light and shadow of ego attachment to invite witnessing a higher consciousness.

The Paradox of Wisdom and Innocence

What if we were born into innocence and naiveté that allows the experience of how not to live so we can gain the wisdom of how to live? Participants will experience using paradox to resolve the life of paradox.

The Purpose of Self Deception

Many times we feel used, duped, tricked, and deceived by others when we haven't looked at our own deception projected onto others. Participants will learn to express gratitude for the lessons of deception rather than becoming victims.
